[redacted] Received a telephone call from Mr. W. E. Cresswell, Administrative Assistant to Senator John Stennis (D., Miss.), advising that the Senator was unable to fulfill yesterday's request for insertion of the Look article of 18 April in the Congressional Record. ✓

25X1

[redacted] Advised by Lou Burnett, Aide to Representative F. Edward Hebert, that Congressman Hebert had returned too late from committee meeting last evening to insert the Look editorial of 18 April in the Congressional Record. It will, however, be placed in the Record today. ✓

[redacted] Mr. Donald Cronin, Administrative Assistant to Senator Lister Hill (D., Ala.), called and advised that the Senator has personally confirmed the scheduled luncheon with the DCI for 14 April.

[redacted] Met with Miss Seely, Administrative Assistant to Representative Garner E. Shriver (R., Kans.), and provided her with background information for response to a student at the University of Kansas who is President of the International Council of Collegiate Chapter of the People to People Program. The student is a former employee of [redacted] and requested the Congressman's assistance in determining whether Agency support had been provided the Program. Miss Seely was most appreciative of Agency assistance in providing the "no comment" response.

[redacted] Met with Mrs. Pat Byrne, Executive Secretary to Senator Milton Young (R., N. Dak.), and provided her with a copy of the Look editorial of 18 April committing it to the Senator's attention for possible insertion in the Congressional Record. Mrs. Byrne noted that the Senator had placed the Evening Star editorial of 31 March in the Record during the day and that he might well be interested in doing the same with the Look editorial. In the Senator's absence from the office Mrs. Byrne is a most helpful and courteous person to work with. ✓
